Summary

Bleach Vol 61: The Last Days opens with Ichigo Kurosaki and his friends returning to Karakura Town after the Winter War. The town has been devastated by the war, and Ichigo and his friends are determined to help rebuild it. However, they soon learn that the war has had a lasting impact on the town and its people.

Ichigo and his friends are not the only ones who are struggling to cope with the aftermath of the war. The Soul Society has also been affected by the war, and the captains of the Gotei 13 are struggling to maintain order. Meanwhile, Aizen Sousuke, the mastermind behind the Winter War, is still at large, and he is planning his next move.

As Ichigo and his friends try to rebuild their lives, they must also face the threat of Aizen and his allies. They must also learn to deal with the emotional scars of the war, and they must find a way to move on from the past.
