Among the survivors is a young man named Chen Feng, who possesses a unique ability: the ability to extract abilities from monsters. A New World

The world has changed. The once familiar landscape is now a dangerous and unforgiving place. Monsters roam the land, preying on the weak and helpless. The survivors have banded together in small communities, struggling to survive. Chen Feng's village is one of these communities. It is a small, isolated village, hidden away in the mountains. The villagers are simple folk, but they are kind and welcoming. They have accepted Chen Feng as one of their own, and he is grateful for their hospitality.

The Ability to Extract Abilities

Chen Feng's ability to extract abilities from monsters is a rare and powerful gift. He is the only person in the world who possesses this ability. With this power, he can become stronger and more powerful than any other human. Chen Feng knows that he must use his power for good. He must protect the innocent and fight against the monsters that threaten humanity.

The Journey Begins

Chen Feng sets out on a journey to become stronger and protect his loved ones. He travels from village to village, helping the survivors and fighting against the monsters. Along the way, he meets new friends and allies. He also faces new challenges and dangers. But Chen Feng never gives up. He is determined to become stronger and protect the innocent.

The Power of Cultivation

In addition to his ability to extract abilities from monsters, Chen Feng also practices cultivation. Cultivation is a way of training the body and mind to become stronger and more powerful. Chen Feng knows that cultivation is essential if he wants to become strong enough to protect his loved ones. He spends many hours each day practicing cultivation. He meditates, trains his body, and studies the ancient texts of cultivation.
