Here are a few of the most popular historical fiction novels from Northshire Heritage:

- The Great War by Harry Turtledove: This epic novel follows the lives of a group of American soldiers from their training camp in Texas to the battlefields of France. Turtledove's meticulous research and vivid writing bring the war to life in all its brutality and glory.
- The Nightingale by Kristin Hannah: This bestselling novel tells the story of two sisters who become nurses during the war. Hannah's powerful writing captures the horrors of the war, but also the indomitable spirit of the women who served on the front lines.
- The Orphan Master's Son by Adam Johnson: This Pulitzer Prize-winning novel follows the life of a young North Korean orphan who is recruited into the country's secret police.
