History

The history of The First Law world is long and complex, but it can be divided into three main eras:

1. The Age of the Ancients: This era saw the rise and fall of the ancient gods and the creation of the world. It was a time of great magic and power, but also of great darkness and violence.

2. The Age of Men: This era began with the defeat of the ancient gods and the rise of humanity. It was a time of great progress and innovation, but also of war and conflict. The Age of Men is divided into two periods: the First Age and the Second Age.
3. The Age of Chaos: This era began with the collapse of the Gurkish Empire and the rise of the Union. It is a time of great uncertainty and instability, and the future of the world is unknown.

Geography

The world of The First Law is a vast and diverse land, with a wide variety of climates and landscapes. The continent of the Old World is divided into three main regions:

1. The North: The North is a cold and unforgiving land, with vast forests, icy mountains, and frozen seas. It is home to the Northmen, a fierce and independent people.
2. The West: The West is a more temperate land, with rolling hills, fertile plains, and a mild climate. It is home to the Union, a powerful alliance of nations.
3. The South: The South is a hot and arid land, with deserts, savannas, and jungles. It is home to the Gurkish Empire, a vast and ruthless power.

cold and unforgiving lands of the North. The Union is a powerful alliance of nations that is home to a diverse population of humans, elves, and dwarves. The Gurkish Empire is a vast and ruthless power that is ruled by a жестокий and despotic emperor. Other notable cultures include the Adem, a nomadic people who live in the mountains of the West, and the Shanka, a mysterious and ancient people who live in the jungles of the South.
